

For Immediate Release – October 26, 2020

Contact: Amy Nelson, Executive Director
Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana
Phone: 317-644-0673 x1001
Email: anelson@fhcci.org

FAIR HOUSING CENTER ANNOUNCES ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – Today, the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana (FHCCI), a nonprofit working to advance fair housing laws, is pleased to announce its election of new officers and members to its governing Board of Directors.

The elected officers are President – Tom Crishon; Vice President – Mandla Moyo; Secretary – Kim Opsahl; and Treasurer – Chase Haller. The FHCCI also announces the election of Emily Munson as its first Director Emeritus. Directors Emeritus are selected from those who have served the FHCCI with distinction and excellence. Ms. Munson was a founding member of the FHCCI in 2011 and had served in various officer positions.

“In 2011, a small, committed group of individuals came together to found the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana due to the significant need identified to have an advocacy based organization working to confront housing discrimination,” stated Amy Nelson, Executive Director of the FHCCI. “Emily Munson was one of those founders who volunteered countless hours to bring the FHCCI to life and guide it to where it is today. The FHCCI is incredibly fortunate to have such a committed group of volunteers serving and providing their expertise as its Board of Directors.”

The following board members were also reelected to new three-year terms:

- Manon Bullock
- Tom Crishon
- Kim Opsahl

The FHCCI also announces the election of several new board members in 2020:

- Hiba Alalami
- Dr. Joanna Brown
- Ledrena Girton
- Ilene Loper
- Dr. Breanca Merritt
- Dr. David Hoa Khoa Nguyen

“As with so many other nonprofits, this has been an incredibly challenging year for the FHCCI due to the housing based needs being faced by so many,” continued Nelson. “The racial justice movement has also brought long overdue attention to the impact of housing in each of our lives as well as brought a national reckoning on the policies and actions still impacting substandard housing, homeownership gaps, and segregated neighborhoods. Our staff and board continue to work to meet these challenges and address violations of fair housing laws.”

Other FHCCI Board Members include Evan Bever, Deborah McCarty, Amber O’Haver, and David Suzuki. A full FHCCI board listing is also available on the FHCCI’s Board Page. To learn more about the FHCCI or its programs, visit www.fhcci.org

The Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana (FHCCI) is a private, non-profit fair housing organization founded in 2011 and based in Indianapolis, Indiana. Its mission is to ensure equal housing opportunities by eliminating housing discrimination through advocacy, enforcement, education and outreach. For more information, visit: www.fhcci.org

The work that provided the basis for this publication was supported in part by funding under a grant with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The substance and findings of the work are dedicated to the public. The author and publisher are solely responsible for the accuracy of the statements and interpretations contained in this publication. Such interpretations do not necessarily reflect the views of the federal Government.