FAIR HOUSING CENTER ANNOUNCES NEW HIRES

INDIANAPOLIS – Today, the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana (FHCCI) announces two new hires to its Indianapolis based operations. The FHCCI welcomes to its team Erika Fotsch and Hafsa Razi.

Ms. Fotsch joins the FHCCI as its Education & Outreach Coordinator where she will coordinate the FHCCI's education, training, and outreach programs to advance fair housing knowledge and information.

Ms. Razi joins the FHCCI as its Systemic Investigations Coordinator where she reviews and analyzes housing markets to uncover and address systemic harms impacting a person's ability to achieve equal housing opportunity.

"Erika and Hafsa are tremendous additions to our team to investigate and counteract the harms associated with housing discrimination," stated Amy Nelson, Executive Director of the FHCCI. "Their work will allow the FHCCI to conduct new programs and activities to advance fair housing outcomes."
