FAIR HOUSING CENTER ANNOUNCES NEW HIRE

INDIANAPOLIS – Today, the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana (FHCCI) announces a new hire.

The FHCCI welcomes William Willis to its team. William joins the FHCCI as its Test Coordinator where he manages the FHCCI’s testing program through recruitment and training of fair housing testers and coordination of fair housing tests.

William received his Bachelor of Science in Philosophy from Ball State University and previously worked in the environmental services industry, as well as volunteering for area nonprofits.

“We’re so grateful to have William on our testing team,” explained FHCCI Deputy Director of Administration & Advocacy, Brady Ripperger. “His passion for fair housing is clear, and we’re excited to have him assist in our testing efforts to combat housing discrimination across central Indiana.”
